Hi Everyone,

Thanks for your support during the regular season. I think things went pretty well.

Good luck to all teams in the finals on March 14th

Here are the Semi – final teams and venues.

Please for Juniors can I have the playing order sent to me by Friday March 6th if possible.

Reminder, it should be the order that the team played in for the majority of the season, but some teams had players swapping from week to week, so can you please get the final order organized.

Let me know if I have missed anything.
